

Annunciation Ladies Philoptochos Society
Baltimore, Maryland 21201

HUMAN TRAFFICKING - SEMINAR

PLEASE SAVE THE DATE: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The New Philanthropic initiative of the National Philoptochos Board is to address and aid victims of human trafficking, which has become a national crisis that subjects and exploits children, teenagers, and adults into forms of modern-day slavery and exploitation.

The Annunciation Philoptochos will sponsor a seminar on this important topic at the:

CATHEDRAL OF THE ANNUNCIATION
24 W. PRESTON STREET, BALTIMORE 21201
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

SPEAKERS:

Cynthia Pappas, senior policy advisor for the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. Cindy's current portfolio at OJJDP includes child sex trafficking and reduction efforts through the Violence Reduction Network as well as other efforts as senior policy advisor.

Two Orthodox Nuns representing All Saints Monastery, Long Island, N.Y., have formed the nonprofit Whitefield Farm, www.hopeprojectny.org, to help victims of human trafficking. The program's principle foundation, "THE HOPE PROJECT," aims to provide housing for survivors as they find recovery, healing and acquire skills necessary to live independently.

This is too important to miss; we all know young people who could fall prey to these horrific crimes. If we can save one person it is worth attending.

A light luncheon will follow: RSVP: Melody Simmons: melody.simmons557@gmail.com